

Hello,

The current folder contains the source code files corresponding to Figure 3 in the paper.

You need to execute "Generate gradient image and highlighted image.py" to obtain the gradient matrices of the RGB three channels and highlighted image corresponding to the original image.