

Hello,

The current code files contain two files, corresponding to the experimental data shown in Figure 6 of the paper.

The folder "experimental images" contains original input images and saliency maps.

The code file "loss_value.py" is used to calculate loss value.